New York, U2

*In New York freedom looks like too many choices
In New York I found a friend to drown out the other voices
Voices on the cell phone
Voices from home
Voices of the hard sell
Voices down the stairwell
In New York, just got a place in New York*

*In New York summers get hot well into the hundreds
You can walk around the block without a change of clothing
Hot as a hair dryer in your face
Hot as handbag and a can of mace
New York, I just got a place in New York
New York, New York*

*In New York you can forget, forget how to sit still Tell yourself you will stay in
But it's down to Alphaville*

*New York, New York, New York
New York, New York, New York*

The end
